

Meeting rooms

We have completely refurbished the office and meeting rooms at Bridge House to create a building that combines progressive and contemporary facilities with the atmosphere of a beautiful old building.

Bridge House offers magnificent meeting rooms, which are available to hire. They provide a peaceful environment where people can meet, reflect, run training events, hold interviews and share experience.

Anne-Marie Hunter, Director Kinetic Solutions Ltd, comments:

"Kinetic Solutions' uses Bridge House for various meetings including strategic planning, brain storming and board meetings. Being able to get away from the busy environment of our office enables us to develop clear thinking without the interruptions. The venue offers a selection of different rooms ranging from the casual informal environment to the more structured board room space. The facilities include a high speed internet link, white boards as well as all other AV equipment; the food is tasty and creative – all of this coupled with attentive service makes for an excellent venue!"

Comments from visitors:

"A fantastic hi-tech meeting venue, I will definitely be using Bridge House in the near future"

"The meeting rooms will cater well for a variety of functions. Extremely friendly staff"

"A most impressive elegant development; interior imaginatively laid out and equipped, versatile and practical"
